My designs provide an outlet for self-expression and liberation to feed her forgotten persona. They resurrect her true inner-self, and now it's for the world to see who she truly is

This season's collection was inspired by the juxtaposition of the dueling lives that a Kristian Lorén woman leads. She juggles any and everything from motherhood, college, a career, board meetings, side hustles, and puts herself second to the people she loves, but she needs to find balance to be her true self. My designs provide an outlet for self-expression and liberation to feed her forgotten persona. This season's reds, metallics and whites are the core of my color pallet. The color combination symbolizes and embodies the essence of the Kristian Lorén super woman. It gives hints to the secret inner-pop star that lies within. My designs resurrect her true inner-self, and now it's for the world to see who she truly is.
